

Charley Rose Trio

CHARLEY ROSE - SAXOPHONE
ENZO CARNIEL - PIANO/MS20
ARIEL TESSIER - BATTERIE

"Charley Rose may be described as a wonderful timbre on the tenor saxophone and an inspiration drawn from expressionist art.

With pianist Enzo Carniel and drummer Ariel Tessier - highly active musicians and well-known tandem within House of Echo - they gathered, without double-bass, for a contemporary jazz trio with a captivating creativity. Influenced by composers of the 20th century, Charley's compositions reveal a program which is at the same time virtuoso and mischievous, savant and acrobatic, poetic and refreshing.

At times these three imagine that during a waltz, Thelonious Monk might run into Sergueï Prokofiev, some other times they let us dream with their version of a David Lynch song."

ENZO CARNIEL
a piano of a vertiginous verticality, sidereal and telluric

CHARLEY ROSE
A polymorphic saxophone that deconstructs its sound from a lyrical voice to the crackling of an elytra

ARIEL TESSIER an almost immanent drummer as a fire of life in everything

PRESS REVIEW

"First album of a young saxophonist, immediate love at first sight. The "Charley Rose Trio" has not finished arousing enthusiasm. ALEX DUTIHL - FRANCE MUSIQUE

"The three musicians happily practice a cultivated interplay, intertwining their own sensibilities and playing styles in the elaboration of pure harmonies and sophisticated polyrhythms."

THIERRY P. BENIZEAU - JAZZ MAGAZINE

fip

"An album whose minimalism is reminiscent of ECM's productions, with its misty landscapes."
 LOUIS MICHAUD - FIP
